

Brown psyllid

(Cryptoneossa triangula)

- ❑ Widespread in southern CA; introduced from Australia.
- ❑ Hosts: Lemon gum (Eucalyptus citriodora) and Spotted gum (E. maculata).
- ❑ Field ID: Adult resembles a small cicada, 3 mm long, slender, pale brown. Larva pale brown or yellow, free-living. Larvae share lerps built by Spotted gum lerp psyllids, moving freely in and out of them.

